

Student-Athlete Fee-for-Lesson Instruction

Purpose: NCAA legislation allows student-athletes to provide skill-related instruction to individuals on a fee-for-lesson basis. The purpose of this policy and process is to establish the manner in which the Compliance Office monitors this instruction for compliance with ASU and NCAA rules and regulations.

Policy: Student-athletes who provide skill-related instruction on a fee-for-lesson basis must do so in accordance with NCAA, Pac-12, and ASU rules and regulations. Student-athletes must complete and return the Fee-For-Lesson Form to the Compliance Office to document all lessons that have been provided.
