

SUN DEVIL ATHLETICS
ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

COACHES' RULES EDUCATION
MARCH 17, 2020

Integral to ASU's focus on integrity is athletics compliance—following the rules of the NCAA and Pac-12 Conference.

- CARAs and RARAs
- Benefits
- Seasons of Competition
- Outside Competition
- Recruiting
- Academics

/// CARAs and RARAs

PAC-12 AND SDA MANDATES

- Pac-12 mandate:
 - No team athletically-related activities, and
 - Individual/voluntary workouts are up to each institution in line with CDC requirements.
- SDA mandate

/// BENEFITS

FLEXIBILITY

- The NCAA and Pac-12 have stated there is flexibility in providing benefits to our student-athletes relating to the current situation.
- Senior administration will make decisions on questions relating to permissible expenses.

BENEFITS

- Meals
- Medical care
- Transportation
- Housing
- Technological/academic support (e.g., laptops, software)

/// SEASONS OF COMPETITION

POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES

- Spring sports:
 - NCAA Council committee statement
 - Unknown whether this is for just seniors or all student-athletes
 - Unknown scholarship implications
- Winter sports:
 - Unknown whether this is for winter sport student-athletes
 - Unknown scholarship implications

/// OUTSIDE COMPETITION

/// RECRUITING

DEAD PERIOD

- On- or off-campus recruiting through at least April 15 is not permissible.
- Telephone calls and electronic correspondence are still permissible.
- There is a moratorium on signing prospects.
 - NCAA: No NLI's through at least April 15
 - Pac-12: No scholarship agreements through at least April 15

/// INITIAL ELIGIBILITY

POTENTIAL ISSUES

- International student-athletes
- Domestic student-athletes

/// ACADEMICS

ONLINE CLASSES

- OSAD is following ASU campus lead relating to online classes and tutoring.
- Student-athletes must follow all ASU policies:
 - Missed class
 - Academic integrity
- Academic support must come from OSAD.

/// ASK FIRST!