Integral to ASU’s focus on integrity is athletics compliance—following the rules of the NCAA and Pac-12 Conference.

- ACS Reminders
- Recruiting Funds
- Permission to Contact
- Elite Athletes – National Teams
ACS Reminders
Reminders

• All phone numbers should be entered in a prospect’s profile (check two sources).
  – MFB, MWTRK, MWSW: All calls must be placed through the ACS app.
  – Other sports: First call must be placed through the app.

• All contacts and evaluations must be:
  – Entered in ACS (double check the dates); and
  – Included in recruiting travel claims.

• Log participation data in a timely manner.
Recruiting Funds
Reminders

All recruiting expenses must be paid for by SDA:

- Coaches may spend personal funds for recruiting and then seek reimbursement.

- Coaches may not receive funds from outside organizations/individuals (e.g., local sports club).
Permission to Contact
Reminders

• Permission to contact needed:
  – For all 4-4 transfers before any communications occur.
  – If a 4-4 transfer has withdrawn from the institution.

• There is no preexisting relationship rule.
Elite Athletes – National Teams
Elite Athletes – National Teams

• Student-athlete participation.

• Coach participation.

• Coaches attending events.
Student-Athlete Participation

Student-athletes can participate in national-team-related:

- Tryouts at any time.
- Competitions only if:
  - The NGB designates the team as the national team;
  - Team selection is made on a national qualification basis through a defined process or publicly announced tryouts; and
  - Competition entries represent their nations.
Student-Athlete Expenses

ASU can pay expenses for student-athletes to compete in:

• National championships including junior level;
• Competitions to directly qualify for specific national team events; and
• National team tryout events for specific competitions (including tiers but must be in line).
• But never for culminating events (e.g., Olympics).
Coach Participation with Prospects

Permissible if part of national development program:

• The NGB administers the program;

• ASU coach actually coaches the team (i.e., cannot perform only non-coaching duties);

• The NGB selects the coaches; and

• The NGB authority (not made up of only ASU coaches) selects participants.
Impermissible examples:

• Soccer program recognized by the NGB (must be organized and administered by an NGB).

• Private international club team.

• Training center does not abide its own qualifying rules.
Coaches and Student-Athletes

• Practice: If part of national development program.
  – During playing season counts as CARAs.
  – No CARA limits outside playing season.

• Competitions:
  – If part of national development program.
  – At actual national-team-related events (same ones ASU can pay for).
  – If counting the competition as part of playing season.
National Team Development Programs

Must meet the following criteria:

- NGB conducts the program;
- NGB selects the coaches; and
- NGB authority (not made up of only ASU coaches) selects participants.
Coaches Attending National Team Events

• A coach can attend legislatively defined events outside the contact/evaluation period.

• But recruiting calendars apply to:
  – Junior level competitions; and
  – Qualifying events or tryouts.
Arlene Chin
Director of Scholarship Services
#DontBetOnIt

Ask First!