/// RECRUITING

DEAD PERIOD

- On- or off-campus recruiting is not permissible through at least June 30.
- Telephone calls (e.g., Zoom) and electronic correspondence are permissible.

ZOOM CALLS

Virtual recruiting calls tip sheet

UPDATED VIRTUAL CALL RULES

Any institutional staff member may participate on a telephone or video call initiated by a countable coach to a prospect.

- This means that noncoaching staff members and other non-countable coaches, like academic coaches, directors of operations, football analysts, sport supervisors, and strength coaches can participate on these calls.
- Note, this does not include noninstitutional individuals such as former student-athletes.

LOGGING PHONE CALLS

- Before placing a phone call or sending a Zoom link to a prospect, coaches and staff must create that prospect's profile in ARMS.
- The first phone call must be placed through the ARMS app.
- The first Zoom call must be logged in the prospect's ARMS profile.

UPDATED VIRTUAL CALL RULES

Any number of prospects (and their family members) may participate on these telephone or video calls.

UPDATED VIRTUAL CALL RULES

Student-athletes may participate on these telephone or video calls with coaches:

- So long as time spent on the calls is counted towards the 8 hours per week of CARAs,
- And the calls do not take place on the student-athletes' off days.

UPDATED VIRTUAL CALL RULES

Signed prospects may participate in virtual team activities after completion of high school graduation or transfer academic requirements.

- So, on these calls, once academic requirements are complete, signees may participate in the same manner as student-athletes.

UPDATED VIRTUAL CALL RULES

Unsigned prospects may observe (but not participate in) virtual team meetings one time per institution.

CAMPS

- Nonprospect virtual camps are permissible so long as coaches follow state and local health guidelines.
- We expect an update on prospect virtual camps in the next couple weeks.

/// CARAs and RARAs

VIRTUAL TEAM MEETINGS

- 8-hour weeks continue through May 31 (continue ARMS logs through this date).
- Beginning June 1, sports can no longer conduct virtual team meetings with CARAs related to the sport (e.g., chalk talk, film review).
- But sports will still be able to hold virtual team meetings that include activities like team building, team bonding, and team entertainment.
 - While coaches may be present during these meetings, you cannot make them participate.

VOLUNTARY WORKOUTS

- Under NCAA rules and the Pac-12 pandemic policy, student-athletes may not participate in any on-campus voluntary activities through at least May 31.
- This may change beginning June 1 to align with state and local health and safety guidance.
